with Marianne Gray, Helen Lubin, and Alice Stamm

Sunday, July 22 – Friday, July 27, 2012

THROUGHOUT THE WEEK will be lively demonstrations of curriculum for each grade 4-8. With particular emphasis on areas of interest for the upper grades. We will discuss the when, how, and why of the Waldorf language curriculum and lesson plan and offer a variety of materials and ideas to support your work. Storytelling in the lower grades, reading, writing, retelling stories, creating stories, and exploring specific grammatical presentations for the middle and upper grades will be focal points of the week. Artistic activities such as singing, dancing, eurythmy, poetry, and blackboard drawing will support the content for each grade. Our Fundamentals of Waldorf Education course—for those new to Waldorf education—provides an introduction to the work. The conference opens on Sunday evening at 7:15pm and ends with a plenum Friday, July 27 at 5:45pm.
