

Waldorf Teacher Training for Subject Teachers

Handwork Program Now enrolling for Summer 2012

- ★ Deepen your understanding of the philosophical foundations of Waldorf Education
- ★ Experience age-appropriate lessons that meet the child's developmental needs and inspire love for learning
- ★ Work with master teachers to develop capacities and practical skills
- ★ Prepare to work in your classroom and contribute to your school community with confidence and creativity

The program meets in three-week sessions for three summers plus one week in spring for three years, with continuing independent study, and observation in Waldorf schools during the school year. Foundation courses are a prerequisite and are offered as the first week of the three-week intensive study each summer for three summers. Those who have already completed foundation courses may apply for an exemption.
