Meet the Faculty

Bonnie River, M.Ed. Waldorf Class and Kindergarten teacher for 30 years. Currently the Accreditation Officer for Steiner College and the Program Chair of the Hybrid Teacher Training Programs of the College. Bonnie specializes in creating a mutually supportive culture of adult learners who seek to employ best practices of Waldorf Education within a deep grounding of teaching profession expectations as fostered in the California Credentialed Teacher. Bonnie holds a California Credential and has worked in administration in a Waldorf-inspired public charter school.

Gila Mann, M.A. Class teacher of more than 20 years who is currently teaching in a Waldorf-inspired public charter school. Gila places special focus on the arts as a discipline to meet the needs of the early teens. Gila is a talented adult educator who can foster the artistic in every learner. You think you can't do it? You haven't worked with Gila!

Alice Stamm, TTE A Eurythmy Teacher and Therapeutic Eurythmist with an established work in bringing Transdisciplinary Therapeutic Education to teachers of young children and engendering the love of Eurythmy-based movement in all people. Come experience the joy of imagination-filled movement!

Alessandra "Lisa" Profumo, M.A. A Waldorf educator for thirty years, who also has rich experience in working in traditionally based educational institutions. She focuses on differentiation to meet the diverse learners, working with parents in support of the child's education. Lisa loves the challenge of the different learners who can learn to support each other in the learning process. She is a lively, engaging and thoroughly up-to-date 21st Century educator.

Ken Lavner, M.M. Ken recently graduated a class at Highland Hall Waldorf School after teaching grades one through eight. In addition, Mr. Lavner has been an NEH Landmark History Grant recipient (2007-2009). He recently finished teaching first grade to twenty-nine students and will continue with them into the second grade in fall. Ken obtained his Waldorf Education Certificate in 1999.
